5. Once you have provided your email account name and password, click on the sign-in button.

6. For those account owners that have completed filling the required information can go to step # 9. For those who first login, the site for Account Information Provision will appear. Please provide all the required information.

Provide the required information on the provided fields. Please be accurate on providing information because these are important for future use.

7. Once the information has been provided, click on the "I Accept" button.

8. Clicking the Sign-in button will prompt you to login to Windows Live and bring you to the sign-in page again (see procedure/item # 4).

9. The following page displays the Account Profile Menu and information. Click on the Hotmail link on the Windows Live Menu to bring you to the Hotmail Web site.

The screenshot shows a Windows Live profile page for 'EAC Research and e-Learning's details'. The page features a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Profile', 'People', 'Mail', 'Photos', 'More', and 'MSN'. A search bar is present with the text 'Search people or web' and a Bing logo. The profile name is 'EAC Research and e-Learning' and is shared with 'Everyone (public)'. There are sections for 'Favorite things' (Music), 'Social', 'Education', 'Work info', and 'Personal message'. A Citi advertisement is visible on the right side of the page.

10. The Hotmail web page will open. On this web page, you can now manage your email account and email messages.

The screenshot shows a Hotmail email inbox. The navigation bar includes 'Home', 'Profile', 'People', 'Mail', 'Photos', 'More', and 'MSN'. The inbox is for the account 'research@eac.edu.ph'. The left sidebar shows folders: 'Inbox', 'Junk', 'Drafts', 'Sent', and 'Deleted'. The main area shows a list of emails with columns for 'New', 'Delete', 'Junk', 'Mark as', 'Move to', and 'Print'. The first email is from 'Windows Live Hotmail Mer' with the subject 'Getting started with Windows Live Hotmail'.
